CONVICTED HIMSELF. - Last Saturday quite rich scene transpired before a committing court in this place. A freedman named Bob Frierson was charged with taking from the barber shop of Dick Moore, colored, several articles belonging to a tonsorial artist's outfit. During the course of the trial Bob often asserted his innocence of theft. Finally the defendant and prosecutor began a sort of7% A M and 4% PM running questioning and answering conversation, which resulted in the complete discomfeiture of the first party. The conversation alluded to ran thus: Prosecutor-You say (showing the white of his eyes and looking Bob square in the face) you nebber took de razor?

Defendant .- Yes I did took the razor; but you saw me when I took um; 'sides dat, if dat was your razor what I took I left mine in de place ob it.

At this point, another "colored gemmen," and who is a partner of Dick's, spoke up: "Bob, how about dat brush! didn't you take a shaving brush too?"

This question seemed to nettle the defendant and he hastily replied :

"Yes I did take de brush; how you speck I was gwine to shave wid out a brush; you speck I gwine to rub ladder on my face wid a rag f'

This frankness on the part of Bob did him ready adduced against him. He was sent to jail in default of bail and will have to make a visit, in all probability, to the Hotel de Brownlow, where, doubtless, he will be shaved to his heart's content.

TEXAS TONIC SYRUP

A Vegetable Compound for the rapid and never falling Cure of

Chills & Fever or Fever & Ague alzell bus altool ,venneits

Every Poison has its Antidote-Every Disease has its Cure. AND BINDHE

The People of the Mississippi Valley and oughout the entire South, have long feit the necessity for I want of a SAFE, CERTALS AND RELIABLE REMand want of, a SAFE, CERRALS AND RELIABLE REM-DY, as a substitute for Quinne, Strychinine, and other olimoneus Brags, for the cure of Fevror and Agus, or Chills and Fever. We claim, and the results will show, and bear imple resiment to every unprejudiced mind, that the Texat Tonic Syrup has supplied this want and arcomplished this purpose. Its Tonic Alternitys and Autisoptic qualities are such that none can possibly be disappointed in its effects. Upon its own merits becrefers it is austained. A single trial is all that is needed to stamp this remedy as the greatest specific of the age. to of the age. The ingredicate of which this Medicine is composed are imple productions of insture absenting upon certain streams a the State of Texas, and were even used by the Aboriginess of that State as a specific for Ferers of all kinds, and especially Fever and Agus, which they never falled to cure.

A calebrated physician, acquainted with these facts, has harmached up his theory upon this important subject, and isnoc the preductproperly samed TEXAS TONIC SYRUP, which we now offer to the public as a specific and positive cure for Fever and Ague, or Chills and Fever, no matter of how long standing.

MEMPHUS, June 1, 1867.

This is to certify that I was afficied with Feverand Agno of the most investorate character for about two years. I tried many remedies, including large quantities of Quinne, etc., without avail. I was finally induced to try the TEXAS TONIU SYRUP. The result has been that after taking the first dose I had "no more chills," and am now rapidly recovering my health and strongth. I have sent two copen of this valuable medicine to my plantati n at Milliken's Bend. Every plantar should keep it on band.
